ONSITE SCULPTURE COMPETITION

The City of Killeen and Civic and Conference Center invite eligible artists to apply for consideration to demonstrate their carving talents during the spring "Take 190 West Salutes the Arts Festival".

THE EVENT

On February 28 through March 6 of 2011, The City of Killeen together with the Killeen Independent School District (KISD), the Killen Civic and Conference Center (KCCC) and Visitors Bureau, and the Killeen Art Guild will be hosting the Take 190 West Arts Festival. It is Killeen's week-long salute to the arts and involves local partners including the City of Killeen, the Killeen Independent School District, the Killeen Art Guild and the Killeen Convention and Visitors' Bureau.

Events include a student art show, a student film festival, writing and drawing workshops culminating in an Artists and Authors event featuring professional artists, illustrators and authors. Highlights of the 'Artists and Authors' event will include a juried art show, an onsite sculpture competition, book vendors, and book signings with national and regional authors which takes place Friday and Saturday, March 4 & 5, 2011

Up to ten (10) artists will be pre-selected to participate in the onsite sculpture competition. Limestone blocks measuring 12" x 12" x 24" will be provided for sculptors on Friday, March 4th at 7:30 a.m. Selected artists will begin working on their sculpture at 8 a.m. Artwork must be an original creation of the artist and must be completed by "Chisel Down" at 5:00 p.m. on Saturday, March 5th. Works of art will be evaluated by a panel of 3 judges. Awards will be given out Saturday at 6:00 p.m.
